

Prize Draw Terms and Conditions

The prize drawn on 31.01.2016 is for a full days training to be delivered at the school or institution of the winning participant.

Training will be delivered by an Authorised Apple Education Trainer at the school or institution of the winning competitor.

Winners must be a current subscriber of the Pink Kiwi Limited e-Newsletter.

Training must be booked and delivered by 15 July 2016. Training will not be transferrable into the following academic year.

Pink Kiwi Limited will do their best to deliver training on dates requested by the school or institution but cannot account for any pre-bookings which may not make this possible.

Training will consist of a standard or bespoke iPad training day or Computing in the Curriculum day. This can be delivered as a combination of in-class demonstrations or an on-site training course. Training can be tailored for any member or groups of staff as deemed appropriate by the school. Maximum numbers for single sessions will apply.

Prize is for training only and is valued at £600 for a full day. Travel costs and any expenses will be agreed and paid by the institution in advance of the training.

No cash alternative is available.

Winners may not transfer this prize to another individual, school or institution.

Individuals may enter only once.

Pink Kiwi Limited will not use email addresses entered for any other purpose than sending regular email newsletters. Subscribers can unsubscribe at any point.

We may choose to run a similar promotion at a later date. Previous entries will not automatically be entered into the new draw.
